Call to Worship

Steven Graham, Liturgist

On this day, may Grace’s breath shatter the shutters of our hearts.

On this day, may we step out of our fears to welcome the new life gifted to us.

Here, in the midst of our siblings of every age and place, may our souls be enflamed by justice’s Spirit.

As we catch a glimpse of the dreams of those around us, as we listen to the voices of the oppressed in every language.

In the days to come, may we speak of God’s love and the Spirit’s peace for all.

So that people will find a community awaiting them, even for those rejected by everyone else.

Let us worship God!

Opening Hymn #129

“Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us”

1
*Come, O Spirit, dwell among us,
Come with Pentecostal power;
Give the church a stronger vision,
Help us face each crucial hour.
Built upon a firm foundation,
Jesus Christ, the Cornerstone,
Still the church is called to mission
That God's love shall be made known.*

3
*Come, O Spirit, dwell among us;
Give us words of fire and flame.
Help our feeble lips to praise You,
Glorify Your holy name.
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Three in one: what mystery!
We would sing our loud hosannas
Now and through eternity.*

2
*We would raise our alleluias
For the grace of yester-years;
For tomorrow's unknown pathway,
Hear, O Lord, our humble prayers.
In the church's pilgrim journey
You have led us all the way,
Still in presence move before us,
Fire by night and cloud by day.*

Call to Confession

On the day of the first Pentecost, the messengers of God were miraculously able to speak in different languages. The profound nature of this miracle is found not in their ability to speak in different languages, but in the gift to those gathered, that they were able to hear the message in their very own tongue. They were made one reconciled people, unified, but not uniform. They were diverse in country of origin, culture, and language, and they were one. Let us then, a diverse people, come together in confession. Let us confess the ways in which we forget and/or work against God's design for the unified, but never uniform, body of Christ. Let us pray...

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, you poured your Spirit upon gathered disciples, creating bold tongues, open ears, and a new community of faith. We confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us. We do not always make space for your diverse peoples or diverse ideas. We do not always proclaim your good news for the poor and oppressed. We do not always live as people made one in Christ.

Have mercy on us, O God. Transform our limited lives by the power of your Spirit, and fill us with a flaming desire to be your faithful people, committed to doing your will. We pray this in the name of Jesus the Christ, Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Siblings in Christ, God's Spirit did not leave us after that first Pentecost. The Spirit is still with us, empowering us to know mercy and grace, forgiveness and service. In this Spirit, and through Christ, we proclaim the Good News:

We are forgiven Alleluia! Amen.

The Passing of the Peace
The Peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Ainsley Bateman, Alex Coleman, Riley Gustafson, Abbey Hughes, Julia Kiplinger, Kelsey Lax, Logan Lord, Morgan Lord, Jordan Ryan

Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the Lord, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the Lord has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

*Do we, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide and nurture these young people, by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging them to know and follow Christ and to be faithful members of his church? We do.

Prayer & Welcome

The Second Lesson

Acts 2:1-21 (N.T., p. 119)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Closing Hymn #132

"Come, Great God of All the Ages"

1 Come, great God of all the ages,
Make Your earthly mission known;
Speak through every deed and person,
Let Your way and will be shown.
Guide the church to true commitment,
Give direction now, we ask;
Fit us for the work of building,
Dedicate us to the task.

3 Come, great Spirit, in and with us,
Tune our ears to hear Your call;
Through the moving of Your presence.
Let redeeming love recall
Ministry in dedication,
Love embodied in our deeds;
Challenge us to do Your bidding,
See Your purpose, fill all needs.

2
Come, Christ Jesus, flesh and spirit,
Sure foundation, cornerstone,
Help us form the church eternal,
May Your vision be our own.
Send a message to each follower,
Lead all people to Your way;
Urge us to strong faith and action
As we build the church today.

4
Come, O come, in celebration,
Household of the one true God.
In commitment and rejoicing
Let us go where Christ has trod;
As we act in faith and reverence.
Let us, Lord, the future see;
Place us in the church triumphant,
Now and for eternity.

The remaining 60% is used to support ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency. An envelope for today's collection is provided in the bulletin.

Adult Ed Today – (11 am Sanctuary/Zoom) Please join us to experience how PACT—People Acting in Community Together (www.pactsj.org)—develops leaders to solve some of our community's most pressing problems. This PACT Action titled "Housing Is Sacred" is a gathering where community leaders describe the personal impact of the housing crisis and work, with City Councilmember Peter Ortiz, toward solutions that benefit us all. Rev. Bruce Reyes-Chow opens this multi-faith, multicultural gathering with a Faith Reflection that names why we are called to this work.

Congregational Meeting Next Week – Following worship next week (6/4), stay to nominate and elect Elders and Deacons (class of 2026) to serve as officers of the church for the next 3 years; as well as members of the Nominating Committee (class of 2025).
