

December 4, 2017

Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Siblings of Stone Church,

It is truly with great joy, clarity, and resolve that I accept the call to be the next Pastor of Stone Church. God has been guiding this process from the beginning and throughout this weekend, and it is my deepest belief that God has already gone before us and will guide us through whatever comes next.

I am grateful for the careful discernment that each and every one of you has done during this time. Our future is full of ambiguity, but I hope and pray that you will be at peace and trust that the Spirit is at work among us. I am beyond hopeful for our future together, and I boldly believe that together we will all grow in faithfulness and become more fully whom God has created us to be. I look forward to being with you all very soon.

Grace and peace,

Sammie